

MASTERS AND DISCIPLES MAKING MUSIC TOGETHER

Mariana NICOLESCO

Abstract: Striving to reach perfection - the very sense of every artist's life - is always deeply rooted in traditions perpetuated by the masters. This idea was once more confirmed by the revelatory performance of George Enescu's songs and that of an opera Mozart composed at the age of 12.

Keywords: song, world première, striving to reach perfection, inventiveness, vocal heritage.
