

THE POPLAR WOOD - NATURAL COLOR AND BEHAVIOUR DURING DYEING

Elena POPA¹

Abstract: The present study represents an analysis of the poplar wood color before and after dyeing, with special focus on the way in which both the late and the early wood behave during the dyeing process. The color analysis has been conducted on samples in cross and tangential section.

Key words: wood, color, measuring.

¹ Dept. of Descriptive Geometry and Engineering Design, Transilvania University of Braşov.