

A PERSPECTIVE ON THE EU CONSTITUTION – PAST AND PRESENT

Adrian ALDEA*

Abstract: Foundation process of the European Union's Constitution was reckon on a complex mechanism of self-awareness regarding the necessity of a such normative settlement at European level. This mechanism grounds its own identity within even the creation of European Economic Community stated by the Rome Treaty from 1957, 25th of March. The article attempts to take a look over the above-mentioned process with a view to emphasize its importance and complexity.
