

THEATRE APPLIED IN THE SOCIAL FIELD

Oana ION¹

Abstract: This article deals with a theme that is at the confluence of social work, psychology and drama. In the article there are synthesised some of the most important theatre application directions in the social field: psychodrama, sociodrama, drama therapy, Augusto Boal's techniques, theatre in education. Next it presents a group work project for children in risk from a day centre in Brasov, having the aim to realise a play and to act it at a campaign for abuse prevention.

Key words: social theatre, psychodrama, sociodrama, forum theatre, drama therapy.
