

Contents

EDITORS' NOTE	1
Appalachians / Carpathians: researching, documenting, and preserving Highland traditions Donald E. DAVIS, Georgeta MOARCĂȘ, Cristian PRALEA
INTRODUCTION	5
Researching and documenting Appalachian and Carpathian traditions: a comparative approach Donald E. DAVIS
Language studies	17
Representation of History in American and Romanian regional newspapers Gabriela CHEFNEUX	19
Patterns of intercultural communication: a case study of Cața rural district Adrian LESENCIUC, Elena BUJA	29
Literature	47
Mountain Mystics: magic practitioners in Appalachian witchlore J. Tyler CHADWELL, Tiffany D. MARTIN	49
The memory of symbolic indeterminations – the founding legends of Râșnov Citadel Rodica ILIE, Andreea IVAN	57
Surveying the Interval: Henry David Thoreau's Climb of Saddle-back Mountain in A Week on the Concord and Merrimack Rivers Iuliu RAȚIU	67

Cultural studies	81
Transylvania: biodiversity, living tradition and future prosperity John R. AKEROYD	83
Globalization and family farm survival in Southern Appalachia Chris BAKER	101
Response and Consequence: The Asheville Flood of 1916 Anthony DePaul SADLER	109
Town Building and Town Persistence in Virginia's Blue Ridge: Lessons from the Past and for the Future Barry WHITTEMORE	117
Reviews	125
Appalachia in the Classroom Teaching the Region – Theresa L. Burriss and Patricia M. Gantt (eds.) Gabriela CHEFNEUX	127
Authors index	131