COST, EFICIENȚĂ, CALITATEA VIEȚII PACIENTILOR CU TRATAMENT DE SUBSTITUȚIE A FUNȚIEI RENALE

Panagiota Vlachou¹; Sorana Baciu²
¹Secția de nefrologie și dializa a Spitalului Halkidis –Grecia
²Catedra de Tehnologie a protezelor U.M.F „Iuliu Hațegianu” Cluj-Napoca

This research debates general problems of cost, efficiency, and quality of life of patients undergoing T.S.F.R. (treatment for substitution of renal function), and compares these aspects in patients from Greece and Romania.

The enounced parameters assure a very good ranking for Greece among other countries. Romania has a very good standard for efficiency, but needs to improve the health budget, as well as the number of dialysis units.